SHILO INNS— The Largest Privately Owned NW Hotel Chain Establishes Unlimited Free Long Distance Domestic Calling

Portland, OR – Shilo Inns announced today that in addition to the myriad of free services they currently offer, effective September 3rd, 2009, guests will also receive free unlimited long distance on domestic calls.

Shilo Inns feels it is important to continue their promise and motto of providing “Affordable Excellence,” and one of the ways they are doing that is through continuing to offer many free services. In addition to the free unlimited long distance calls, Shilo Inns was also one of the first private hotel chains to offer free high speed internet.

“The free unlimited long distance on domestic calls is another way that Shilo Inns is saying ‘thank you’ to our guests, and especially to the thousands of American troops and veterans that frequent Shilo Inns. This is our way of helping our guests stay connected to family and friends,” Mark Hemstreet, owner of Shilo Inns said.

Shilo Inns’ guests are comprised of people traveling for business, the military, as well as pleasure. It is Hemstreet’s hope that business and leisure travelers alike will be able to save money and time by utilizing the unlimited free long distance domestic service at all Shilo Inns’ locations.

“Our 100% smoke free locations offer free high speed internet and now free unlimited long distance domestic calls, which are just a few of the things we offer to make our Shilo guests’ stays more comfortable,” Hemstreet said. “We take pride in being able to offer our guests many free services and amenities that can make their travels more convenient and affordable, while simultaneously helping them save money.”
